

Securing a Child Using a Seatbelt

To correctly use a seatbelt, ensure the shoulder belt is over the child's shoulder and across their chest, never behind the child's back or under their arm. The lap belt should also be snug across the child's hips – not across the stomach.

NOTE: If the shoulder belt rubs against the child's neck, a booster seat may need to be used.